Class Name: Lulworth

Term: Term 1 2023-2024

What we have been learning this term:

It's been another busy term in Lulworth Class and we can't believe it's already half term!

We've been focusing on telling the time in maths this half term. Students are looking at an analogue clock and working out when things are happening during the day.

Some of our students have been working on their cutting skills by making a fruit salad, they all enjoyed the lesson and eating the results.

Our book in English this term is Holes by Louis Sachar and we are engaging with the staff, working our way through reading and listening to the story. We are looking forward to watching the film when we have finished reading the book.

Students are thoroughly enjoying the weekly trip to sailing lessons at Andrew Simpson Sailing School. They are working towards Level 1 in the Youth Sailing Scheme. The students are sailing the single person sailing boat by themselves. They have taken to the water like ducks to water.

Some students are still continuing with climbing and Earth Trust. They will be working on the ASDAN award and will hopefully be gaining marks towards their certificates.

We have a new lady coming in for music therapy once a week and students are able to join in, play the instruments, sing and enjoy different types of music.

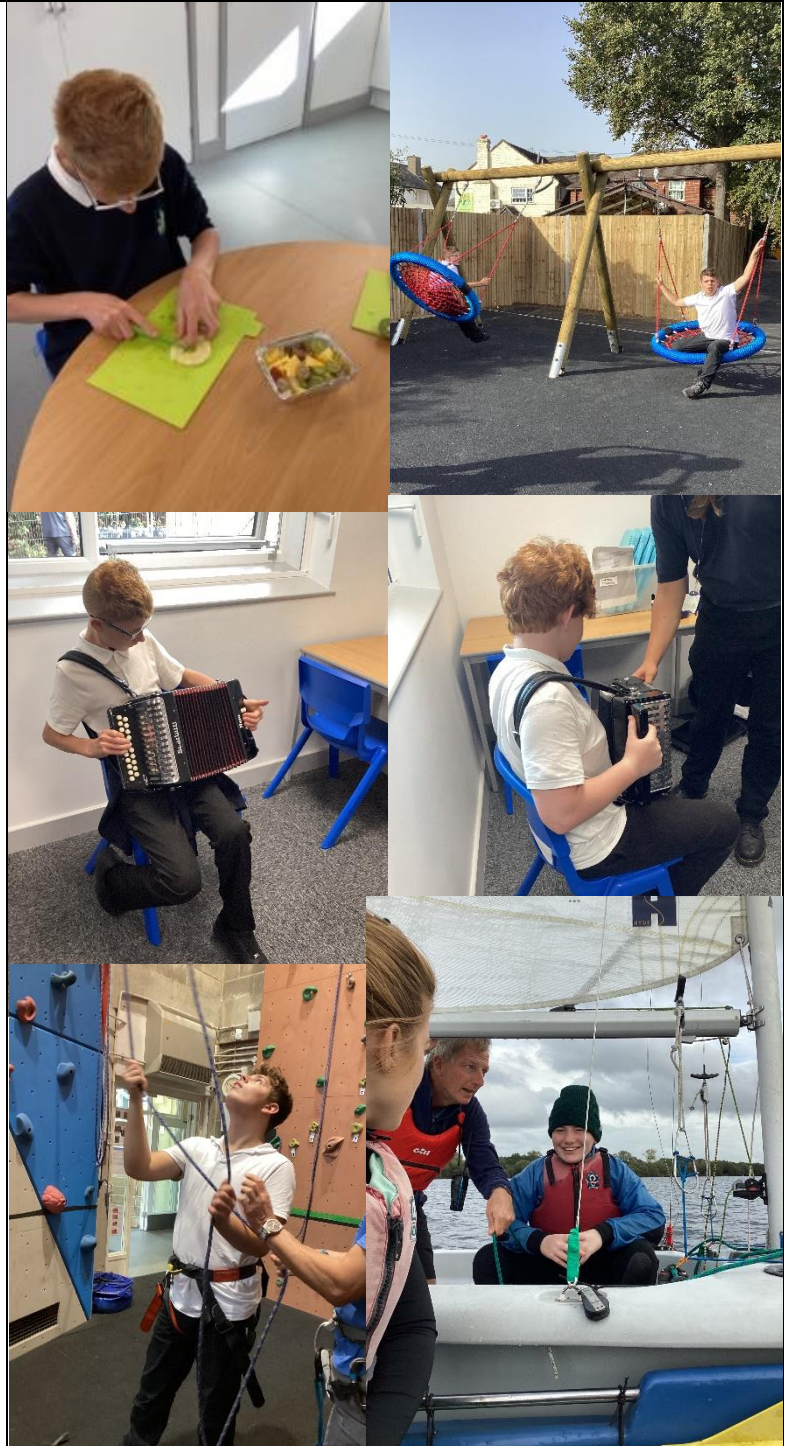

On a Monday afternoon we have Averil for PE and Charles for music. Averil has been teaching how to play pickle ball. Charles has been teaching and showing how music can be made on the iPad.

We are enjoying the new school and the space it gives, the play equipment and sensory rooms are a great hit.
